THE LEGEND(S)

Tore André Flo is a retired Norwegian football striker and youth coach. He was capped 76 times, scoring 23 goals for Norway, and represented his country in 1998 FIFA World Cup and UEFA Euro 2000. During his professional career, he played for Sogndal, Tromsø and Brann in Tippeligaen, before he moved abroad and played for Chelsea. After a successful spell with the English club, he was sold to Rangers and had spells at Sunderland, Siena, Vålerenga and Leeds United before he announced his retirement in March 2008. He subsequently rejoined Chelsea and is currently a member of their coaching staff.

Paulo Renato Rebocho Ferreira, OIH is a retired Portuguese footballer who played as a defender. After starting out at Estoril, he went on to spend the vast majority of his 16-year professional career with Porto and Chelsea, signing with the latter in 2004. He won several major titles with both clubs, including two Primeira Liga titles, three Premier League trophies and the 2004 and 2012 editions of the Champions League. Ferreira earned 62 caps for the Portuguese national team between 2002 and 2010, playing at two European Championships and two World Cups and finishing as runner-up at Euro 2004.

Carlo Cudicini is an Italian former footballer who played as a goalkeeper. He is the son of the former Milan goalkeeper Fabio Cudicini. Cudicini started his professional career at Serie A side Milan in 1992, before moving to Lazio in 1996 and eventually English Premier League side Chelsea for the 1999–2000 season. He was voted Chelsea's Player of the Year for the 2001–02 season and the ITV Premiership Goalkeeper of the Season for the 2002–03 season. Cudicini left Chelsea in 2009, having made 141 league appearances for the club, and joined local rivals Tottenham Hotspur.
